

ALIGNING GLOBAL PARTNERSHIPS
and Community Engagement with Clinical Research:

OPPORTUNITIES BEYOND THE PANDEMIC

OCTOBER 28 - 29, 2021 | 1:00 - 5:30 PM AST
Virtual Summit 8 hrs

Earn Up to 6.5 hours of CE/CME credits of continuing education for healthcare professionals*

English ↔ Spanish simultaneous translation will be available.

Registration fees:

Early bird until October 8, 2021

$80 (20% off) - General public
$64 (20% off) - Students, academia, patient organizations/advocacy groups and PRCCI members

After Early Bird:

$100 - General public
$80 - Students, academia, patient organizations/advocacy groups and PRCCI members

Register NOW!

*Continuing education credits have been applied for including CME and other health professions.

Scientific Agenda

OCTOBER 29TH, 2021 - DAY 2

1:00 PM – 1:15 PM

1:00 PM – 1:10 PM

Introductory Remarks - Scientific Session

Amarilys Silva-Boschetti, PharmD, BSPHarm, RPh, Executive Director of PRCCI

Introduction of the Keynote Speaker

Frances Santiago-Schwarz, PhD, Center for Global Health, Northwell Health, USA

Ongoing Clinical Interventions and Public Health Challenges

1:10 PM – 2:00 PM

COVID-19: The Great Divider, Uniter, and Accelerator

Richard H. Carmona, MD, MPH, FACS. 17th Surgeon General of the United States. Chief of Health Innovations, Canyon Ranch; Distinguished Professor, University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ, USA

2:00 PM – 2:30 PM

Intellectual Property as a Determinant of Health: It's Impact on Clinical Research

Ana Santos Rutschman, SJD, Assistant Professor, Center for Health Law Studies, Center for International and Comparative Law, Saint Louis University School of Law, MO, USA

2:30 PM – 3:00 PM

Understanding the Molecular Biology Related to COVID-19 Clinical Strategies

Frances Santiago-Schwarz, PhD, Chair Research, Center for Global Health, Northwell Health, NY, USA

3:00 PM – 3:30 PM

Update on Investigational Antiviral Therapies for COVID-19

Sean T. Liu, MD, PhD, Medical Director of the Mount Sinai COVID Clinical Trials Unit, Division of Infectious Diseases, Department of Medicine, Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai, NY, USA

3:30 PM – 3:35 PM

5 Minutes Break

3:35 PM – 4:10 PM

Developing Vaccine Strategies Against SARS-COV-2 Variants and Addressing Vaccine Distribution No CE credit hours for this presentation

Presentation in Separate Industry Spotlight Room

Alejandro David Cané, MD, Vaccines Scientific and Medical Affairs Lead in North America, Pfizer, USA

4:10 PM – 4:35 PM

Engaging Multiple Academic and Clinical Entities in Clinical Research During Health Emergencies: Confronting Challenges in a Large Healthcare System

Karina W. Davidson, PhD, MASc, FAHA, Senior Vice President, Research Northwell Health, NY, USA

4:35 PM – 5:05 PM

Precision Medicine and Precision Prevention: Impact on Clinical Research

Kenneth S. Ramos, Professor of Translational Medical Sciences; Alkek Chair of Medical Genetics. Executive Director, Institute of Biosciences and Technology. Associate Vice President for Research, Assistant Vice Chancellor for Health Services, Texas A&M University System, TX, USA

Q&A Session and Panel Discussion

5:05 PM – 5:30 PM

Aligning Expectations with Global Realities

Richard H. Carmona, MD, MPH, FACS. 17th Surgeon General of the United States. Chief of Health Innovations, Canyon Ranch; Distinguished Professor, University of Arizona, Tucson, AZ, USA

Closing Remarks Day 2

Amarilys Silva-Boschetti, PharmD, BSPHarm, RPh, Executive Director, PRCCI, Puerto Rico

Co-sponsored by:

Subsidiary of the:

Innovation · Investigation · Well-being